'Tintypes' here April 6

Tickets are now on sale for the performance of the Barter Theatre Players' touring production of "Tintypes", to be presented at the Appomattox County High School auditorium on Friday, April 6, at 8 p.m.

Appomattox is one of 201 cities and towns scheduled to enjoy "Tintypes" during the world famous Barter Players' Spring Tour.

"Tintypes" is a musical panorama of turn-of-the-century American life, and contains more than 45 nostalgic tunes which will delight the young and old alike.

This production is sponsored by the Appomattox Garden Club. Tickets at $5 per person are available from Garden Club members or by contacting: Mrs. Martin Webb, President; Rt. 2, Box 506; Appomattox, Va. 24522; Telephone (804) 352-5382.

Tickets will also be available at the Box Office the night of the performance.

Oakville club meets Mar. 13

The Oakville Home and Garden Club will meet at 11 a.m. March 13 at the old Oakville school.

Mrs. Lucille Lewis, Mrs. Linda Phelps, Mrs. Irene Mays and Mrs. Lorraine Lacado will have a workshop on finishing chair bottoms. Members will bring all supplies for their project.

Each member is also asked to bring a covered dish for lunch. Hostesses for this meeting will be Mrs. Margaret Hillsman and Mrs. Blanche Phelps.

"We are deeply grateful to those making contributions to the fund," said Thomas Chilton, Assembly president.

Style Shed grand opening this weekend

The Style Shed, located on Church Street, will be having Grand Opening Days next week, Friday, March 9 and Saturday, March 10.

Offering affordable fashions for women, misses, girls 5 through 6X and sizes 7 through 14, the Style Shed is owned and operated by Linda Shupe.

A complete line of skirts, slacks, blouses, designer sweat suits and Panama Jack shirts are available to the shopper.

The new spring and summer line will offer skirts, shorts, slacks, and tops in coordinating colors and ladies dressy sweaters.

In addition, the Style Shed offers wood items, brass and bisque decorative pieces and some reproduction furniture.

"This is something I've been wanting to do for a long time," said Shupe, a native of Virginia who spent most of her young childhood years in California, returing to Virginia at age 12.

"The whole idea began when my husband, Bobby, began selling a few things on the flea market in Lynchburg. The customers began asking where we lived and began coming to our home for the clothing we offered. So, we began in the garage, then moved to our basement," said Shupe. "Then business continued to grow to the point where we could no longer handle the volume at home, so we moved to our present location on Jan. 19 of this year."

"I'm going to try to keep my prices down as long as I possibly can so we can offer our customers attractive clothing without having to spend a lot of money," she commented.

Plans for the future of the business include expansion in order to offer clothing for boys.

A drawing will be held for a washstand and bowl and pitcher set during the Grand Opening Days celebration. In addition, any customer making purchases totaling $40 or more will receive a free LCD watch for either men or women.

Regular store hours are Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. until 5 p.m., and Friday, 9 a.m. until 6 p.m.

On Grand Opening Days, the hours will be the same with the exception of Friday, when the Style Shed will remain open until 9 p.m.

St. Luke church news

The regular first-Sunday preaching service at St. Luke Baptist Church was well attended by a host of members and visitors. The Rev. R. Jones delivered a sermon titled "We Come Into This House."

The Young Adult Choir rendered soul-stirring music, and the Senior Ushers were at their posts. The congregation shared communion.

The Rev. Jones presided over the funeral service for Deacon Walter Mays Scott, immediately after the worship service.

Deacon Scott was born on Feb. 13, 1897, and died on Feb. 27, 1984. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sadie H. Scott; one brother, Mr. Coston Snead, of New York; one sister, Mrs. Geneva Brown, also of New York. He was called Sweet Heart by his wife, and was recognized as that by many people.

On the sick list are Mrs. Dora Martin, Mrs. Annie Yuille, Mrs. Izzie Bell Jones, Mrs. A. H. Clayton and Mrs. Ester Callahan, who is doing better and was at church Sunday.

We pray for the sick and the shut-in everywhere.

Research, education is goal of kidney foundation

The National Kidney Foundation of Virginia, Inc. has been formed to support research and education in the area of kidney disease.

More than 13 million Americans die each year from kidney diseases and more than 50,000 need renal dialysis therapy to live.

As one of the first projects, NKF of Virginia has organized "Organ Donor Day" in the Virginia General Assembly for March 8, 1984. A resolution sponsored by Delegate Franklin P. Hall and passed in the General Assembly encourages all Virginians to sign the uniform organ donor card portion of their drivers license.

The Virginia affiliate has elected the following officers: T. Cary Greaham, president; Frederic K. West, secretary; and Colleen F. Sellers, treasurer. A medical advisory board has been chosen, headed by Dr. James C. M. Chan, director of Pediatric Nephrology at MCV in Richmond.

The National Kidney Foundation of Virginia will use fund raising campaigns and special egents to fund its efforts.

For more information, contact Barbara Priddy at (804) 285-2805.
